- Succesful applicants who own a modified vehicle must have their vehicle inspected at the KNPD secretariat;
- A copy of the vehicle log book and the applicant's driving licence must be presented whenever a person with disability applies for a vehicle road licence exemption.

WHAT PROCEDURE MUST BE FOLLOWED WHENEVER A CHANGE OF CAR IS MADE?

If a beneficiary of an exemption wishes to replace his/her vehicle, all dues on the older vehicle must be paid pro rata to Transport Malta. The tax receipts should be sent to KNPD together with a fresh application for exemptions pertaining to the new car.

WHAT HAPPENS UPON THE DEMISE OF A PERSON WITH DISABILITY?

The heir may benefit from the exemption only if he/she is the deceased's spouse. The heir must inform KNPD of the transfer of ownership registered on the vehicle's log book so that the exempted fees are not paid back. This may be done by providing KNPD with:

- A photocopy of the death certificate of the beneficiary;
- A photocopy of the logbook;
- A photocopy of the heir's identity card.

Following this process, KNPD informs the Ministry of Finance so that the required changes in the logbook are authorised. Should the heir not be the deceased's spouse, he/she must obtain a court order authorising him/her to change ownership on the logbook after paying part of the exemption that had been granted to the deceased.
